Help students stretch their dollars with UnitedHealth Allies[®]

Dental and vision services. Sports equipment. Even textbooks! Students save on these services and products with the UnitedHealth Allies[®] health discount program, offered as part of eligible student health insurance plans.

Your students will stretch their dollars by reducing the cost of many health care products and services that matter to them. They can save 5–50% on many health and wellness products and services not covered by their other StudentResources programs.

UnitedHealth Allies is an easy way for students to reduce their health care expenses. For more information about UnitedHealth Allies, including additional savings categories you might be interested in, contact your UnitedHealthcare StudentResources Account Executive.

The UnitedHealth Allies Discount Program is administered by HealthAllies[®], Inc., a discount medical plan organization. This discount program is not a qualified health plan under the Affordable Care Act. UnitedHealth Allies discount plan is NOT insurance. UnitedHealth Allies provides discounts at certain health care providers for medical services. UnitedHealth Allies does not make payments directly to the providers of medical services. The program member is obligated to pay for all health care services but will receive a discount from those health care providers who have contracted with the discount plan organization.
