Johns Hopkins University Benefits Requirements

Johns Hopkins University requires that all full-time domestic students purchase the health plan unless proof of comparable coverage is provided. International students on F1/J1 visa status are required to enroll in the Student Health Benefits Plan.

Non-resident graduate students, graduate study abroad students and visiting graduate and undergraduate students are eligible to enroll in the Plan. Advanced Academic Program and Engineering for Professionals students carrying a full-time course load are also eligible to enroll in the Plan. Coverage for eligible Dependents is available. Students should complete their enrollment or waiver by August 26, 2023 to avoid a registration or financial hold. The final enrollment/ waiver deadline is September 15, 2023.

2023/2024 Waiver Deadlines

All full-time students will be billed via their university student account.

If you have comparable coverage, you may be eligible to waive the Johns Hopkins University Student Health Benefits Plan and the associated charge.

Waiver requests should be submitted through Academic Health Plans (AHP) for students after June 1st. You will need your current health insurance ID card ready in order to waive the Student Health Benefits Plan.

If you do not complete the AHP online waiver by September 15, 2023 the plan benefits charge will remain on your account and you will be covered by the University's Student Health Benefits Plan for the academic year.
