Questions?

We've got answers.

Did you know that more than half of undergraduate college students reported they had felt overly stressed in the past year?<sup>1</sup> If you're feeling the same way, you're not alone.

The good news is that your SAP offers resources and services that can help you with the things that may be keeping you up at night, including:

Money, budgeting and ID theft — with financial calculators on the website to learn about credit card debt, loan rates and financing major purchases. Plus, a savings center with a discount shopping program of up to 25% savings on name-brand and luxury items.

Stress, anxiety and depression — can affect your studies and social life. Get connected to the right resources to help you cope.

Addiction and recovery — with guidance and support focused on long-term treatment.

Student/life services — for help meeting the needs of school, work, friends and family.

Healthy lifestyles tips and resources — on healthy eating, safe sexual behavior and better sleep.

Relocation services — for more information on moving, renting or buying your first home after college.

Legal services — to help with things like small claims court issues, identity theft and traffic violations.

The resources you need, your way
Pick from these resources online:

This online and mobile tool offers unlimited access to resources for stress, anxiety, depression, substance use and sleep.

Reach us any time. We're here day and night to support you. Call the toll-free number. It's completely confidential and a representative will help you find resources near you.<sup>2</sup>

Maybe you just need to ask a quick question about something. Call us.

Don't worry. It's free and confidential.
