Texas Woman's University 2018-2019 Eligibility Guidelines

The student must actively attend classes for at least the first 31 days after the date for which coverage is purchased. Home study, correspondence, and online courses do not fulfill the eligibility requirements that the student actively attend classes. The Company maintains its right to investigate eligibility or student status and attendance records to verify that the Policy eligibility requirements have been met. If and whenever the Company discovers that the Policy eligibility requirements have not been met, its only obligation is refund of premium.

Eligible students who do enroll may also insure their dependents. Eligible dependents are the student's legal spouse and dependent children under 26 years of age.

Domestic Students

Undergraduate students taking six (6) or more credit hours (three (3) hours in the summer) and graduate students taking three (3) or more credit hours are eligible to enroll in this insurance plan.

International Students

All registered international students taking credit hours and F-1 and J-1 Visa students are automatically enrolled in this insurance plan at registration and the premium for coverage is added to their tuition billing.
