

Did you sign up for the school-sponsored student health insurance plan?

It's worth taking a second look...

Backed by UnitedHealthcare and its national network of health care providers, you can relax knowing you can find a preferred provider no matter how far you are from home or campus.

Thanks to students being a typically healthier group, the student plan may have lower deductibles and out-of-pocket expenses than an employer plan. Carefully compare SHIP benefits and the [UHC Choice Plus] provider network with the benefits and provider network of any alternate plan you may be considering.
